Background:

- ❖ Risk Management, Governance, and Compliance
- ❖ Risk Culture
- ❖ Strategic Planning
- ❖ Regulatory Relations
- ❖ Leadership and Executive coaching

Sue is all about positive energy. She is passionate about helping senior executives and boards to manage critical whole of business challenges, and to drive change for a competitive edge. Sue enables sustainable outcomes through the use of her expertise in risk management, governance, compliance, leadership, and executive coaching. She uses neuro-science-based techniques to achieve high performance teams.

Sue is a former Global Enterprise Risk & Governance Executive at a number of Australian organisations. She was responsible for strengthening risk and governance, enhancing risk culture, and providing oversight of Board Risk Committee activities. She also served as the primary contact with key International and Australian regulators.

Internationally, Sue has held executive positions in the Internal Audit function at JPMorgan (USA, Hong Kong & Singapore), and in the Global Risk Management & Compliance function at Citigroup (USA & Tokyo). As a CPA and Senior Audit Manager at Deloitte, she successfully advised client CFOs and the boards in government, and in the medical, manufacturing, financial services, and entertainment industries.

With over 35 years of experience, Sue has supported listed, private, public, and not-for-profit boards, providing advice from her 'real-life practising director' perspective. She has a proven track record of designing & conducting plausible, surprise crisis simulation exercises for Executive Management. Sue also led the crisis management effort for Citigroup's Risk function during the 9/11 World Trade Centre disaster and its aftermath.

Sue is certified as a subject matter expert and facilitator of risk, strategy and governance courses for the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD) and the Governance Institute of Australia (GIA). She is also a Chartered Secretary (FCIS).

In December 2015, Sue was awarded the designation of Distinguished Talent (DT) by the Australian Government for her exceptional and outstanding international achievements in the areas of risk management, governance, and compliance.
